

Thursday April 29th:

“Against the Women”: Interrogating the Roles of Evil Spirits in 1 Enoch 15:12 on Gender Performative Roles
Florence Egbeyale, Florida State University

Transcultural Perspectives on Law in the Fourth Book of Ezra
Florian Neitmann, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster

John 1: A Cosmology for the Colonized
Daniel Collins, United Lutheran Seminary

Mocking Songs and Sneering Throngs: Theorizing Laughter in the Dead Sea Scrolls
Tommy Woodward, Florida State University

Seminar Hosts:

Rodney Caruthers II, Ph.D., Gustavus Adolphus College

Chair/Secretary

Deborah Forger, Ph.D. Dartmouth College

Co-Chair

Jackie Wyse-Rhodes, Ph.D., Bluffton University

Co-Chair

Friday April 30th:

Apocalypticism during the Late Second Temple Period. John the Baptist as a Study Case
Daniele Minisini, Sapienza University of Rome

Does the Son of Man Possess the Divine Name? And a Critique of Larry Hurtado
Clay Mock, Ludwig Maximilian University Munich

Goodness, Gracious, Great Swords of Fire! The Judeo-Hellenic Context of Military Scenes in Joseph and Aseneth
Gillian Glass, University of British Columbia

“From the Words of the Watchers and the Holy Ones I Heard Everything:” Ancient Jewish Scribalism, Response, and the Organization of Knowledge
Emily Olsen, Florida State University

At the Intersection of Historiography and Rhetoric: Ideologies of Language and Knowledge in the Book of Jubilees and Related Literature
Naila Razzaq, Yale University

The Phallus in Our Stars: Sexual Violence in the Animal Apocalypse
Megan Remington & Julianna Smith, University of California, Los Angeles

Guest Speakers:

Shively Smith, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor of New Testament
Boston University School of Theology

Casey Elledge, Ph.D.
Professor in Religion
Gustavus Adolphus College

For the full itinerary go to

<http://enochseminar.org/enochgraduateseminar2021>